ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime, and shall observe the standard conditions of supervised release recommended by the United States Sentencing Commission and adopted by this Court.
2. The defendant shall not unlawfully possess controlled substances.
3. The defendant shall refrain from possessing firearms, destructive devices, and other dangerous weapons.
4. The defendant shall participate in transitional and reentry support services, including cognitive behavioral treatment services, under the guidance and supervision of the Probation Officer. The defendant shall remain in the services until satisfactorily discharged by the service provider with the approval of the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Officer access to any financial information upon request.
6. The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicles, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects (as defined in Title 18, U.S.C., Section 1030(e)(1)), to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by the probation officer, and if necessary, with the assistance of any other law enforcement officer (in the lawful discharge of the supervision functions of the probation officer) with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release. The probation officer may seize any electronic device which will be subject to further forensic investigation/analyses. Failure to submit to such a search and seizure, may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or occupants that their premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition. In consideration of the Supreme Court's ruling in Riley v. California, the court will order that any search of the defendant's phone by probation, while the defendant is on supervised release, be performed only if there is reasonable articulable suspicion that a specific phone owned or used by the defendant contains evidence of a crime or violation of release conditions, was used in furtherance of a crime, or was specifically used during the actual commission of a crime.
7. The defendant shall participate in an approved substance abuse monitoring and/or treatment services program. The defendant shall refrain from the unlawful use of controlled substances and submit to a drug test within fifteen (15) days of release; thereafter, submit to random drug testing, no less than three (3) samples during the supervision period and not to exceed 104 samples per year accordance with the Drug Aftercare Program Policy of the U.S. Probation Office approved by this Court. If deemed necessary, the treatment will be arranged by the officer in consultation with the treatment provider. The defendant is required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (co-payment) in an amount arranged by the Probation Officer based on the ability to pay or availability of third party payment.
